Req259

Position Title and Location

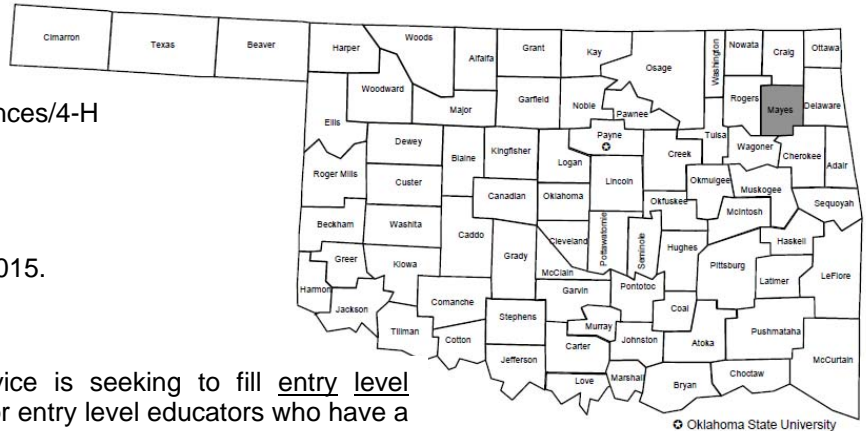

Extension Educator, Family & Consumer Sciences/4-H
Mayes County, Pryor, Oklahoma

Date Available

This position is available on or after May 21, 2015.

Salary

The Oklahoma Cooperative Extension Service is seeking to fill entry level educator positions. Beginning annual salary for entry level educators who have a master's degree is $36,500 and $33,500 with a bachelor's degree. Starting salary will be based on education and relevant prior experience.

Job Summary

This position has primary program responsibility for family and consumer sciences programs. Also shares responsibility for programming in community resource and economic development with approximately 10% FTE spent in the area of 4-H youth development.

Participates as a cohesive team member with other Extension educators to involve local clientele and advisory groups in planning, implementing, and evaluating the total Cooperative Extension program.

Uses a variety of delivery modes to implement programs, including direct teaching, media, utilization of volunteers, exhibits, electronic information, etc.

Responsible for educational programs in family and consumer sciences requiring a broad technical knowledge of subjects such as nutrition, child and family well-being, and management. Responsibilities include educational programs which strengthen families and communities.

Works collaboratively with Extension specialists, other agencies, business leaders, and organizations to: develop coalitions; network; and coordinate and conduct programs.

Works effectively with the 4-H Youth Development Educator to enhance 4-H Youth Development program efforts within the county.

Ensures that all youth and adults have an equal opportunity to participate in Extension programs regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, gender, age, disability, or status as a Vietnam-era veteran.

Work responsibilities and relative levels of programming assignment will be reviewed at least annually in conjunction with development and approval of the Annual Implementation Plan Timeline.

Continuation of this position is subject to the need for the position, performance, availability of federal and state funds, and annual participation by the county in funding OCES by meeting or exceeding established contract guidelines.

Qualifications

A master's degree in Family and Consumer Sciences is preferred with a bachelor's degree required. Extension educators hired with only a bachelor's degree are expected to work toward completion of an approved master's degree. Extension experience is desirable.

Demonstrates ability to effectively listen, communicate, and foster a professional image of OCES by displaying a positive view of the organization both internally and externally.

Demonstrates willingness and ability to effectively manage time and resources and adapts well to changing priorities, situations, and day-to-day demands.

Possesses writing, communication, and organizational skills.

Affirms a commitment to continued personal professional development.

Demonstrates leadership ability in designing, promoting, presenting, and evaluating educational programs and the desire to program to reach diverse audiences.

Provides evidence of ability to build and maintain relationships and work effectively with clientele, advisory groups, volunteers, other professionals, etc.

Demonstrates competency and effective use of computing and computer-based communications technology.

Exhibits willingness to work extended hours, including evenings and weekends. Occasional overnight travel is required. Available personal transportation is required and a travel allowance is provided.

The person selected for this position is expected to establish and maintain their domicile in Mayes County.
