Impact of the Summer Youth Activities was immediate in the rural setting of Oklahoma Panhandle. Thirty-eight workshops provided hands-on experiences in plant science, animal science, arts and crafts, food safety, fabrics and fashions, outdoor recreation and safety, entomology, photography, and woodworking. Beaver, Cimarron, Texas, and Ochiltree counties put on a Quad-County Camp. Youth learned about ants at the Beaver County Library Summer Program.

PARTICIPANT RESULTS:

- ☑ 106 YOUTH participated in workshops and came away with new knowledge and approximately 250 fair exhibits
- ☑ 41 Youth participated in Quad County Camp and learned teamwork in six different workshops
- ☑ 43 Youth participated in the Library Summer Program and learned about ants
